Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law requires a peace officer or an officer of a society for the

3 discovers any animal being treated cruelly to: (1) take possession of the animal; and 4 (2) provide a written notice to the owner of the animal, if the owner can be found,

6 be cared for and sheltered and the fact that there is a lien on the animal, limited to 7 not more than 2 weeks, for the reasonable cost of shelter and care furnished to the 8 animal. (NRS 574.055) Existing law confers a similar lien upon a peace officer or 6 shelter and care or, upon obtaining written permission from the 7 owner of the animal, may destroy it in a humane manner.

13 owner is not present at the taking and the officer cannot find the 14 owner after a reasonable search, the officer shall post the notice on

16 and address of the owner are later determined, the notice must be 17 mailed to the owner immediately after the determination is made.

9 the animal's food and water. If the owner is unable or refuses to pay
10 the charges, the State Department of Agriculture shall sell the
