To Whom it may Concern:

I have had the opportunity to work with Brad Pillsbury over the last 15-years. During this time Brad has proven himself to be a dedicated, hardworking, and reliable employee. Brad's keen attention to detail, positive attitude, and excellent communication skills play a critical role in the success of every project that he works on. These aforementioned skills have fostered many positive long-term relationships with both contractors and our clients.

In addition to Brad's consistently excellent performance in the workplace, his commitment to volunteer work in the communities he works in is admirable. Over the years I have had the opportunity work along-side Brad, he has consistently shown a commitment to volunteer work, specifically in the areas of wildlife conservation and education. As an avid outdoorsman, his work in these areas is helping to ensure the longevity of these critical resources for generations to come.

To whom it may concern:

For your consideration I recommend Mr. Brad Pillsbury for one of the open sportsman seats on the Washoe County Advisory Board to Manage Wildlife (CAB). Mr. Pillsbury is a native to Washoe County with a passion for hunting, fishing, and wildlife conservation throughout Washoe Co. and the great state of Nevada. Mr. Pillsbury has been involved in many nonprofit conservation organizations, including serving as a board member for the Northern Nevada Safari Club International (NNSCI). As a NNSCI board member Mr. Pillsbury was instrumental in a board vote to help fund a wildfire restoration project north of Reno that included seed purchase and a volunteer effort for getting the seed on the ground. Mr. Pillsbury has spent countless volunteer hours with Nevada bighorns Unlimited (NBU) building and repairing guzzlers in Washoe Co. and volunteering to work year after year at NBU's annual fundraising banquet. Mr. Pillsbury is a third-generation sportsman who has enjoyed many hunting and fishing adventures with his grandfather, father, father-in-law, wife, stepson, and many others. Mr. Pillsbury has a passion for Nevada's wildlife, and as an Eagle Scout you can count on him to do the right thing when it comes to wildlife and habitat conservation in Washoe Co. I ask that you please consider Mr. Pillsbury for the Washoe CAB. I am confident that Mr. Pillsbury will serve the Washoe CAB with dedication and integrity.

Sincerely

Re: Reference Letter - Brad Pillsbury

To Whom it May Concern:

I would like to recommend Brad for the open sportsman position on the Washoe County CAB board.

I have known Brad for the last 15+ years. Brad has been a faithful supporter and volunteer of wildlife conservation efforts here in Nevada. I have worked beside him on numerous projects with NBU and NNSCI. He has served on the NNSCI board as well.

Brad is a man of his word. When I have assigned him a task he has been faithful to follow through and get it done. He is responsive when called upon, going the extra mile to accomplish the task timely and thoroughly.

I think he would be a great representative for Sportsman in Washoe County.

Sincerely,
