

Incline Village Community Center

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the Washoe County Incline Village Community Center?

The Incline Village Community Center is a centralized hub for socialization and access to resources in Incline Village, Nevada.

Where is the Washoe County Incline Village Community Center?

Located next to the Incline Village Library at 855 Alder Avenue, the center has two rooms that are available to seniors for drop in activities, a conference room that can be reserved and a larger activity room for community use.

Who can use the center?

- Drop in activities and use of the larger activity rooms are targeted for the senior population in Incline Village and Crystal Bay.
- Group coordinators and residents may also use the conference room by reservation to host community meetings.
- In addition, the center is accessible to the entire community to access local government and non-profits including Tahoe Regional Planning Agency, Tahoe Transportation District and United States Forest Service. These organizations all offer local community resources at the facility.

What are the current hours?

Drop-in hours are Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 1 p.m. – 4 p.m. Conference rooms are open Mon-Fri from 10 a.m. – 6 p.m., by reservation only. You can reserve one of our conference rooms by contacting Washoe311 at 3-1-1 or (775) 328-2003 or going to www.washoecounty.us/ivcc and follow the link to reserve.

Will hours of operation be expanded?

We are seeking volunteers to help us expand our hours. If interested, please contact Todd Acker at tacker@washoecounty.us.

What type of activities are being hosted at the center?

There is regularly scheduled Bunco, exercise classes and photography classes. Starting in June there will be a calendar of activities on the website. www.washoecounty.us/ivcc

Will hours be expanded?

We are actively seeking volunteers to help staff the center. As the volunteer pool continues to grow, we will be able to expand hours. If you are interested in volunteering please contact Todd Acker, tacker@washoecounty.us.

Will staff be available?

Washoe County is committed to working with the community to fulfill their needs including access to staff. The Incline Village Community Center is currently supported by a suite of dedicated volunteers. In addition, Washoe County is working with local non-profits to offer special events connecting residents with resources. In addition, future plans include reviewing opportunities for intermittent staff at the facility. As we continue to grow, we look forward to your feedback regarding what services are most valuable to the Incline Village and Crystal Bay communities.

How can I volunteer?

The center is in need of volunteers! Please contact Todd Acker at tacker@washoecounty.us. Volunteers are needed to help staff the center and provide activities for community members.

Is there a charge to use the center?
