LICENSE OR CERTIFICATE

A valid Class C driver's license is required at the time of appointment and must be maintained for continued employment.

A CPR/First Aid and Blood Borne Pathogens certificate is required at the time of appointment and must be maintained for continued employment in this classification.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

This is the journey level in the Juvenile Detention Specialist classification series. It is distinguished from the Juvenile Detention Specialist I by its ability to independently perform a wider range of more complex assignments. This classification provides direct observation, supervision, guidance, and general custodial care of juveniles and facilitating programs with less supervision.

SUPERVISION EXERCISED

May provide general direction to staff when in a position of field training officer or acting supervisor.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES (The following is used as a partial description and is not restrictive as to duties required.)

Responsible for the care, security, reporting, observation, supervision, and guidance of juveniles in residence.

Maintain security, prevent escapes, and ensure enforcement of policies and procedures; resolve problems and differences among the juveniles.

Assist and instruct residents with daily living skills, including personal hygiene and maintenance of living areas.

Record observations of youth and report relevant information to appropriate staff.

Actively participate in the planning, development, and teaching of self-improvement/special interest programs.

Complete paperwork on shift including documentation in case management system, incident reports, probable cause reports, intakes, and all other required documentation in a timely manner. This could also include police reports and referrals to social services agencies.

Adhere to OSHA and MSDS standards.

Supervise juveniles with mental health issues including acute suicidal actions, severe depression, and psychosis; make appropriate referrals to mental health professionals for further evaluation.

Use defensive tactics training to prevent youth from harming themselves or others.

Transport juveniles to and from the facility as needed.

Attend staff meetings; participate in training programs.

Under supervision, serve as a liaison between Juvenile Services and other outside agencies and the public.

May provide training and coaching for Juvenile Detention Specialist I

May be assigned to specialty assignments within the detention center, that require more advanced knowledge and skills than the JDS I classification. Specialty assignments may include case management for juveniles on house arrest/electronic monitoring or for misdemeanor referrals.
