Welcome to Washoe County! You have joined a nationally recognized local government dedicated to improving the quality of life in our community. As a County employee, you determine the public's first and sometimes only experience with their government. We are committed to serving our customers in a professional, friendly, and efficient manner, and we look forward to your contributions to the outstanding reputation we have with the citizens we serve.

Washoe County is a dynamic organization that continues to look for opportunities to improve services while being fiscally responsible to the taxpayer. I encourage you to share your good ideas and innovations to assist us in our mission to provide quality products and services. Our management team, elected officials and Board of County Commissioners are committed to the future of the County and its employees. We strive to make our strategic plan and organizational philosophy statement living documents. It is through this commitment that we are able to offer employees a challenging and rewarding place to work.

As a County employee, you will receive a wide range of benefits. Most of these are explained in the enclosed materials. If, however, information is unclear to you, please contact the HR representative in your department or the Human Resources Department.

I hope your employment with Washoe County will be a fulfilling one. Congratulations and best wishes!

Sincerely,
