There are no income qualifications to use the Family Resource Center, although some referrals to other services may be limited according to income guidelines. Individuals may call the Family Resource Center for information and referrals to resources in the community which may be able to help meet basic needs or provide other forms of assistance. Staff is available to assist families with identifying needs and to help them locate the resources to potentially meet those needs. They are also available to assist you in obtaining services through advocacy and interventions with other community agencies. Families with minor or school aged children can enroll in the Family Success Program. The Family Success Program is a voluntary program that consists of an initial discussion to determine the needs of the family and then links the family with appropriate community and government resources. A plan is made with the family to help set goals and action steps necessary to meet those goals. The plan is tailored to address the unique needs of the family and will likely require additional appointments. Families who are taking action and making progress towards attaining their goals may be eligible for additional services. |
