

Washoe County, Nevada

~PROCLAMATION~

WHEREAS, Neoma Jardon has served the City of Reno since November 2012 as a City Councilmember and has been an advocate for our unhoused population since she was elected to the City Council; and

WHEREAS, she saw an opportunity to give our unemployed population an opportunity to gain valuable experience by creating the Reno Works Program, in turn making our area better; and

WHEREAS, she observed that there were many different nonprofit and governmental agencies working on homeless issues and utilized her role as a leader and Councilmember to bring these groups together; and

WHEREAS, she has been an integral part in creating the Community Homelessness Advisory Board (CHAB); and

WHEREAS, with her leadership, the CHAB has achieved a regional approach to homelessness through the Our Place Shelter separating men and women, the CARES Campus, and an adoption of a built for zero and housing first model;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Community Homelessness Advisory Board (CHAB) does hereby proclaim September 12, 2022 as:

~Neoma Jardon Day~

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Community Homelessness Advisory Board (CHAB) encourages all citizens to follow Neoma Jardon's example in supporting our most vulnerable populations with collaboration, innovation, and leadership of empathy and compassion for our fellow community members

Dated this 12th day of September 2022.

Alexis Hill, Chair
Community Homelessness Advisory Board
