

Wilbur D. May Museum Report

Highlights

- The Museum hosted a paranormal investigation class from the Truckee Meadows Community College Workforce Development and Community Education program. 20 students attended the program, which included guided investigations through the May Museum collection.
- The Museum finished its two-month run hosting the Adoption Exchange kiosk. Many visitors were able to pick up information on adoption through Washoe County. We plan to host the kiosk again next year.
- The Museum Studies class from UNR visited the museum for a lecture and guided tour of the collection with assistant curator Samantha Szesciorka.
- The Museum finished its three-month run of the Sherlock Holmes exhibition. The exhibit was well-attended and had lots of positive feedback from visitors.
- The May Center had a booth at the annual Bridal and Beauty Expo at the Grand Sierra Resort.

Future

- Sierra Watercolor Society will install and display their new art exhibition titled “Freedom of Expression” from November 9 – December 8.
- The Museum will host a discussion and workshop for local museum professionals on understanding and implementing the American Alliance of Museum’s new LGBTQ Welcoming Guidelines on November 7.
- The Museum will be a drop-off location for the Reno Rodeo Denim drive from November 13 – December 31.
- The Museum will participate in the Museum Store Association first annual Museum Store Sunday on November 26, highlighting special items in the gift store and offering sales on select items.
