

Rancho San Rafael Regional Park

Celebrating 40 years!

On July 3rd, 1982, Rancho San Rafael Regional Park opened to the public. With enthusiasm and pride, Washoe County Regional Parks and Open Space will celebrate the 40th anniversary of Rancho San Rafael Regional Park this year.

Rancho San Rafael 40th Anniversary

Celebrating Rancho San Rafael events

- “40 for 40” social media and Inside Washoe posts about Rancho San Rafael. One post a week for 40 weeks that delve deep into the history, people, events, buildings, and open space that have shaped Rancho San Rafael Regional Park over the years. Posts started in March and will conclude in November. Outstanding public interaction thus far.
- Wilbur D. May Museum exhibit June 1st thru June 30th celebrating Rancho San Rafael’s past, present, and future. The display will feature a comprehensive story of Rancho San Rafael Regional Park history through photos, fun facts, interactive exhibits, photos contest winners, and photo scavenger hunts. Learn what the park could have been and what might lie ahead in the future.
