6. Announcements, Presentations, Recognition and Items of Special Interest. (No Action will be taken)

6.1. Updates and discussion of major park projects or park additions from the Reno RPC, Sparks PRC, and Washoe County OSRPC.

Reno Parks and Recreation Director Nath Ullyot informed the commissioners that their Parks and Recreation and Open Space plan is nearing completion and will hopefully be completed in the next three months. He also provided a brief update on a few facility projects currently underway. Reno Parks Manager Matt Brezina highlighted the twelve capital improvement projects currently started or in the planning phase, with six projects set to be completed by August 2023.

Sparks Parks Development Coordinator Brandon Miles highlighted Sparks larger park projects that have recently been completed or are currently underway. Some of these included the Jack Reviglio Memorial Park, the Marina All Abilities Playground, the Forecourt project in front of the Nugget Event Center, and the recently completed Fitness Court at the Larry D. Johnson Community Center.

Washoe County Park Operations Superintendent Colleen Wallace Barnum gave the commissioners an update on the changes within her department since the last joint meeting. Some of these updates included adopting the county's 20-year park master plan in October 2019, Bowers Mansion and pool restorations and expansions, a new full-time trails program coordinator position, and expanded the maintenance staff by 2.75 full time equivalents. This is the first increase in park maintenance staff since 2008.

6.2. Presentation and discussion on the process to establish a potential park district.

Julee Conway and Alicia Reban provided the Commissions with a presentation on what a park district was, what benefits it could provide the area, and the necessary next steps to move forward in the information-gathering process. The presentation will be emailed to the Directors to distribute to their respective commissions.

7. General Business Items (For Possible Action)

None.

8. Comments
