

May Arboretum Report December 2023 – January 2024

Highlights

- ◆ 7,7678 people came through the arboretum. Mainly for Winter photos.
- ◆ May Arboretum held a walk-through Winter light show demonstration in Honey's Garden
- ◆ May Arboretum Society held a Winter solstice event in Labyrinth Garden

May Arboretum Environmental Educational Programs

- ◆ Homeschool group classes concluded for the 2023 year
- ◆ Little sprouts (kids 2-4) being hosted in the Ranch House (approx. 20 kids weekly)
- ◆ Olli education programs for gardening and bird watching are held every third Wednesday (about 20 people per class)

Arboretum Operations

- ◆ Arboretum staff has been removing snow and maintaining drainage ditches
- ◆ Mulch was spread throughout the Arboretum
- ◆ Greenhouse seeds have been ordered and planting schedule is being created
- ◆ 5 trees have been removed due to death

Honey's Garden:

May Museum Report – December 2023-January 2023

Highlights

- ◆ “Sierra Watercolors Exhibit Extended November 22nd-January 20th
- ◆ Expedition Dinosaur: Rise of the Mammals Exhibit arriving January 27th
- ◆ Free County and Teacher Day planned for January 28th
- ◆ Tuba Christmas event saw 200+ attendees for the annual concert

Attendance

- ◆ 2225 attendees (Dec. 1 – Jan. 10th)

Reservations

- ◆ 15 reservations (Holiday Parties, Weddings)

Museum Operations

- ◆ Three UNR interns completed 20 hours each; Four TMCC volunteers completed 2-3 hours each
- ◆ Discovery Room opened up for three Saturdays in December seeing more than 70+ community attendees at each