Why are you interested in being part of this board, commission, or academy?

I would just like to be on a medical advisory board for seniors. My husband had a stroke and is currently in a home. I am rapidly approaching 73 years old and the medical care is much to be desired. I fear for those without an advocate and without income because they are in a world of hurt.

How do you feel you are qualified to serve on this board? Include any past experience, as well as serving on other board/commissions.

I was CPA with a practice in San Jose, CA so I have knowledge of how money should be spent. Renown hospital screwed up on my husband 9 years ago and he was paralyzed. We went through hell but by God's grace and fabulous therapists, he got full use of his paralyzed side. In February, another screw up has left him paralyzed. I know what we have had to go through to attempt to get LT Care to kick in - they haven't YET. And, we are in a decent financial position. What do poor people do?????

Do you currently serve on any boards/committees or volunteer?

☐ Yes ☒ No

If yes, please list the boards/committees or volunteer programs.

I plan on volunteering again (I used to years ago, before my husband's first paralysis) in one of the title schools to help young children - 1st or 2nd grade would be my preference.
