- A. Failure to satisfy requirements of Regulations relating to background checks and personal history requirements; or
- B. Failure to satisfy requirements of the staff-to-child ratio, outlined in Section 24, two or more times during the licensing period of the facility; or
- C. Failure to satisfy the training requirements of Section 23 of these Regulations by the end of the licensing period of the facility; or
- D. The failure to correct any violation of a provision of these Regulations or 432A of NRS within the time frame set forth in the notice of the violation, a fine may be imposed for each day a facility is in noncompliance with the notice of violation; or
- E. The Agency may impose an administrative fine of $200 in addition to any administrative fine if a violation results in an injury to any person; or
- F. Failure to submit a completed application for reissuance before the expiration of the license of the facility, in addition to any renewal or late fine set forth in Section 10.1.

*15.2 Penalty.

- A. If a child care facility violates any law or regulation related to its licensure, including any provision of these Regulations or Regulations outlined in 432A of the NRS, the Agency may:
 1. Prohibit the facility from accepting additional children until it determines that the facility has corrected the violation;
 2. Limit the number of children to which the facility may provide care until it determines that the facility has corrected the violation;
 3. Impose an administrative fine of not more than $1000 per day for each violation, together with interest thereon at a rate not to exceed 10 percent per annum;
 4. Appoint temporary management to oversee the operation of the facility and to ensure the health and safety of the children to whom the facility providers care until:
 - a. It determines that the facility has corrected the violation and has management which is capable of ensuring continued compliance with the applicable statute,
